Family Centred

We are a family, not an organisation or religion.

Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Matthew 12:48-50

Matthew 12:48-50

Healthy Families love each other without the expectation of what they can get in return.

Healthy families learn to receive love and accept being loved.

If you feel that you need to earn love in a church. Then you will always be trying to earn people's approval and when you don't get it through your actions. You'll be hurt and feel rejected.

This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

1 John 4:10-11

Healthy families give time to listen to each other's thoughts and concerns.

Healthy Families Forgive

Healthy Families love, even when they are hurt and frustrated.

Disagreements and fallouts in church are inevitable, but what is not inevitable is how we react and move forward.
