

Joyfully Difficult and Selfless Lives

Matthew 20:20-28

She said, "Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom."

"You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said to them. "Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?"

A better question would have been:

'Jesus where would you want us to sit, where am I created to be?'

'If happiness wasn't in comfort, was it somehow to found in being uncomfortable? Or did suffering a little somehow make us stronger, more fulfilled human being?'

Adharanand Finn

"You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father."

"whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave— just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Let's seek do our best, but let's not do that at the expense of anyone else.
